

RESUME

Education

Hebrew University, Graduate and Undergraduate degrees in Archaeology and History of Art. Honours graduated with distinction.
Teacher's training certificate from Hebrew University
Brondesbury Senior High School for Girls, London, England

Languages

Fluent in English, French, German Hebrew, Yiddish, Spanish (some)

Consultation

Appraisals

International Consultant and Appraiser specializing in Judaica, archaeological findings, antiquities, also general residential contents, silver, furniture, jewelry, paintings, etc., for Israel Museum, Spertus Museum, Chicago, Skirball & Magnus Museums California, Plotkin Museum, Arizona, Holocaust Museums all over US, Jewish Museum, London, etc. Insurance companies - CHUBB, METLIFE, ENSERVIO, 1993 - present

Employment

President, 1993 - present

Joy Schonberg Galleries, Inc.

Lecturing and giving seminars to synagogues on History of Jewish Art/ Archaeology
Organizing Fine Arts and Antiquities shows, exhibitions for Universities/institutions
Holding Fine Arts/ Antiquities auctions and writing detailed professional catalogues of all items to be auctioned
Producing programmes for cable networks on fine arts/ antiquities/ appraisals.
Provided supervision of art history interns for Universities

Visiting Professor, 1987-1990

Yeshiva University, NY, NY

Taught variety of seminars on - "History of Art", "Antiquities", "Archaeology", and "Appraisals"; Board member Yeshiva University Continuing Education Program; prepared innovative teaching methods for the procedures of appraising Judaica.

Fundraiser and Organizer of Charity Functions, 1993 - present

Hadassah, B'nai Brith, Emunah, Holocaust Art Restitution Project, etc.

Developed various events including auctions, dinners, appraisal evenings.

This involved contacting national and international donors and various philanthropic organizations including Ronald Lauder Foundation, Michael

Steinhardt,

Foundation, Bear-Sterns Investments, various banks, etc.

International Head, Antiquities/ Fine Arts/Judaica, 1988-1993

Christie, Manson and Woods International, NYC, NY

Responsible for consignments, appraisals, cataloguing and thorough research of origin of works for auction, public relations, liaison to major world collections, also responsible for supervising staff, budgeting departmental costs and making certain profits are made

Contacted major foundations and philanthropists for special Christie's charity functions

Lecturer and Assistant Curator, 1987-1988

Yeshiva University, NY, NY

Selected and acquisitioned objects, ethnographic material, manuscripts and documents from archives all over the country; conducted special seminars/ guided tours, handled all public relations, reorganized and developed new system of record maintenance.
"Raban Remembered - Jerusalem's Forgotten Master", "A History of German Jewish Heritage"
Researched and translated material, edited exhibition catalogue

Jewelry Department (replica section) Head, 1986-1987

Israel Museum, Jerusalem

Developed entire collection of ancient Jewish jewelry replicas. Selected pieces from the Museum collection and reproduced them for sale in the Museum shop in order to generate additional financial support for the Museum, gave lectures on Art
Increased scope of Journal internationally, assisted the board in the selection of articles for publication, improved and edited styles of articles planned layout of Journal

Assistant Curator - Antiquities Department, 1985-1987

Israel Museum, Jerusalem

Arranged exhibitions, handled public relations: conducted guided tours in French, Hebrew and English; compiled a new inventory system for cataloguing objects

Assistant to Director, 1984-1985

Department of Antiquities and Museums of Israel, Jerusalem

Involved in selecting excavation sites and participated in their excavations, responsible for writing, translation and editing of all excavation reports.

Assistant Editor of Archaeological Journal, July-December 1984

Israel Exploration Journal, Jerusalem

Assistant to Cabinet Minister, 1983-1984

Ministry of Education, Jerusalem

Educational Director for innovative programs for children/adults, and translator

Lecturer/Teacher Publications

On Art History, Antiquities, Archaeology, Judaica, 1993 -present.

"Shavuot (Pentecost) in Art", Booklet and Slide Show published by the Ministry of Education Israel, (Hebrew).

Editor - The Judaica Collector Magazine, 1986 - 1990

Reviews - Numerous book reviews, Mizrachi News Letter, HaZvi, 1986 - 1990

Licensure

Licensed Auctioneer in NYS

Certifications

Teaching Certificate from Hebrew University

Certified Member American Appraisers Association

Past Member American Society of Appraisers

T.V. Experience

Regular appearances on Personal FX cable network discussing Fine Arts/Antiquities,

Computer Skills

Familiar with Mac/Power Mac systems and IBM, Microsoft Word/Office, Excel, Power Pt, knowledge of Adobe Photoshop, and Quark.

